

The 7th ASAE CONFERENCE 13-15 OCTOBER 2011

INVITATION TO ATTEND

The members of the Asian Society of Agricultural Economists (ASAE) would like to extend a warm invitation to you to attend the 7th ASAE Conference from 13rd to 15th in October 2011 in Hanoi, Vietnam. The committee and contributors are developing a dynamic and diverse program incorporating a range of presentations from professional and specialist speakers, and presenters in the field. The Conference venue is Women Development Center at 20 Thuy Khue Street, Hanoi, Vietnam. The Conference presents a great opportunity for all those involved in research, teaching, policy making and managing agriculture and rural resources to exchange the knowledge, and get updates and hear broader perspectives on issues facing Asian Agriculture and Agricultural Economics on the way finding its sustainable future. This will provide a great chance for scholars, researchers, development thinkers, academicians, economists, and policymakers coming from 25 countries inside and outside Asian region to network with each other to develop their career and also definitely a great opportunity for Sponsors to expand their status and recognition among attendees.

ABOUT ASAE

ASAE was set up in 1991, is an academic forum for agricultural and rural issues, helping scholars, researchers, policy makers, etc., to exchange knowledge, experiences as well as propose initiatives, policies to improve economic, social conditions for rural people and farmers. Each 3 years, the society organizes an international conference to share, exchange, and discuss emerging issues and challenges of Asian economies in the field of agriculture and rural development, food security and poverty alleviation, etc.

ABOUT IPSARD

This year the conference is co-organized by Institute of Policy and Strategy for Agricultural and Rural Development (IPSARD) who is a think-tank of Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development of Vietnam in terms of policy and strategy of the agricultural and rural development sector.

SPONSORS

ASAE welcomes the following sponsors:

Bill & Melinda Foundation, ILRI, IFAD, SEARCA, UNDP, MARD and ACIAR, Asia Foundation, JAES, KAEA, Harim Foundation

We would like to thank you Sponsors of 7th ASAE Conference for their generous financial and technical support. Sponsors can gain recognition among the attendees, especially among those who received direct support for their participants or they can expand their status and network by assist in organizing sessions relevant to their fields of expertise. Moreover, becoming Principal Sponsors of the Conference is a great opportunity to maximize their exposure among scholars, development thinkers, academicians, economists, and policymakers in Asia and worldwide.

CONFERENCE VENUE

Center for Women Development (CWD)

20 Thuy Khue Street, Hanoi, Vietnam.

The Conference venue is about 4 kilometers from the city center and closed to most beautiful lakes in Hanoi such as Hoan Kiem Lake, West Lake and Truc Bach Lake.

HANOI—THE HOST CITY

Hanoi is the cultural capital of Vietnam with a population of six millions.

Hanoi is a charming city with many beautiful lakes and French-inspired architecture of ancient houses in the old quarter built during the French occupation.

It is also a busy city like any other Asian city. Streets are always busy during both day time and night time and a great place to explore on foot, especially in the old quarter where locates various shops for traditional products and a range of nice restaurants and coffee shops for food and drink. This is also where tourists can find a different and lively life of Hanoian.

The best time to visit Hanoi is during the three months from October to December, when you will find warm, sunny days (23–28°C) and levels of humidity below the norm of 80%, though it can be a bit cold at night.

TRAVEL

Flight to Hanoi, Vietnam

Main air carriers providing domestic flights in Vietnam are Vietnam Airline and Jetstar Pacific Airlines.

Main air carriers providing international flights from and to Vietnam are: Vietnam Airlines, British Airways, Cathay Pacific, China Southern Airlines, China Airlines, Emirates, Eva Air, Japan Airlines, Korean Air, Air France, All Nippon Airways, Asiana Airlines, Lao Airlines, Lufthansa, Aeroflot, Philippine Airlines, Qantas, Siem Reap Airways, Singapore Airlines, Thai Airways, Malaysia Airlines, Cambodia Airlines and Jetstar Pacific Airlines.

We recommend you to book flights yourself, and should you need assistance with changes with your booked tickets travelling to and from Hanoi and within Vietnam please email to 7thasae@cap.gov.vn

Travel from the Airport (distance – about 30 kilometers) to the conference venue:

There will be Organization Board staff sent to the airport to welcome Conference delegates and assist you with information of how to get to your hotels.

There are shuttle buses to get to the city near the airport but you are recommended to take taxi because we are afraid that the transferring between routines is complicated for you to follow.

There are two taxi agencies providing good service at the airport that you can take straight away from outside of your check out gate:

GENERAL INFORMATION

TEMPERATURE

For the month of October, Hanoi's average maximum temperature is 28°C; the average minimum is 22°C. The temperature at night time may be averagely 2-3°C lower than that in the day time.

GOODS & SERVICES TAX (GST)

Visitors to Vietnam must pay GST (10%) on all goods and services that they buy. There is no refund of GST available when you leave Vietnam.

PASSPORT & VISA

Travelers to Vietnam for the purpose of attending a conference must carry a passport that is valid for at least 6 months beyond the date you intend to leave the country.

Countries that are exempt from entry visa to Vietnam that is valid for 15 to 30 days include: Cambodia, Thailand, Singapore, Malaysia, the Philippines, Indonesia, and Laos.

Vietnam also unilaterally exempts from entry visa that is valid for not over 15 days for citizens from Russia, Japan, Korea, Finland, Denmark, and Sweden. Travelers from these countries must carry a passport that is valid for at least three months beyond the date you intend to leave the country.

To apply for a visa to Vietnam, you can go to the Embassy or Consulate General of Vietnam in your countries to ask for the procedures. Normally you are required to submit following documents and it will take you about 7-10 working days to obtain a visa. However, these procedures and requirements may be various at the Embassy or Consulate General of Vietnam in different countries. So you are advised to spare well enough time before your departure to ensure you will get a visa.

- Filling in a form which you can get at the Embassy or Consulate General of Vietnam in your countries
- 02 newest portrait images (4x6cm).
- Passport with validity of at least six months.
- Enclosed other documents that endorse purposes of your travel to Vietnam. In our case, for attending a conference you need an invitation letter from Conference Organization Board.

To assist you in obtaining the visa, we will send you invitation letters to attend via email with the endorsement of the Conference Organization Board.

To avoid unforeseen circumstances that may prevent you from getting passed at the airport, you should get your visa from the Embassy or Consulate General of Vietnam in your countries where you submitted the application before your departure other than to choose to take it at the airport.

If you need any other assistance in obtaining the entry visa to Vietnam, do not hesitate to contact us.

If you want a service agency to get the visa for you, we are pleased to arrange a service agency that provides service price ranging from 15USD to 40USD, excluding fee for custom (about 15 USD at Embassy or Airport) and play as a contact point between you and the visa service agency. Your information should be sent to us at least a month before your departure.
